

A greater power

Music: Lukas Lundh

Lyrics: Lukas Lundh with a little help from Stefan Sönerhed

When the time has come
you know you ought to surrender
You have done all you can and it's in His hands

That is when we must turn to a much greater power
'Cause we all have a limit
to our own strength

Facing a crisis
You're out of control and you know it's not your doing Being brave
Trying to handle it, but you're only human and now that's not enough and you're acting tough it's the only way
but you know that you can't manage on your own

When the time has come
you know you ought to surrender
You have done all you can and

to our own strength

It's getting harder We're so used to being safe from all catastrophes
And you know
It's getting later
Look at what we're doing to ourselves
Is there anybody, anybody, anyone who knows who to turn to
